14th December 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you may know I love Christmas week here with all of the children, staff and my wonderful PTFA. However, today we have met as a Senior Leadership Team and decided that in order to keep the whole PMS family as safe as possible we are postponing the disco and concert until after Christmas, refunds for the disco will be in your Parentpay account in the next couple of days.

We are sorry that this is going to be disappointing for many of our learners but we feel that despite risk assessing both events that it is the safest decision to make. Hopefully we will be able to run a Valentine or Easter disco and we plan to have a big outside Summer concert in July.

On a more positive note, Mrs Jones is returning to school tomorrow from her maternity so I would like to welcome her back. Also Dene Dance teachers Katy and Claire are coming in to teach Street Dance to our Y6 and Y7 students after Christmas.

There will be a l'hebdo sent out Friday but until then stay safe and look after yourselves at this very busy time.

Warmest wishes

Natalie Frost
