School update

HEADTEACHER UPDATE

Good afternoon,

I hope you had a relaxing break last week. It is a much shorter half-term, but we still have so much to squeeze in.

Firstly, we have a training day this half term on the 17th of March. There have been issues on our website, and this should have been on there, but I am aware that it was missing, so I apologise for that. This is a day that children will not be in school.

Thank you to all of the parents and carers for their support with World Book Day. The effort the children had gone to was great, and it was wonderful to see so many involved and once again highlight the importance of reading for pleasure.

On the 24th of March, we will have our first ever PMS Fun Run. We are asking the pupils to gain sponsorship for this event, and they all should have brought home a sponsor sheet before half term. ALL money from this event will go towards the school library revamp, and the student leaders are so excited as this is their idea and they will be running the event in school.

We would love for pupils to gain as much sponsorship as they can, and there will be details about bringing this into school once the event has taken place.

We are hoping to reach our target of £5000 which we are sure we can do. This will benefit all children in the school now and in the coming years. We really hope you can support us with this.

Have a great weekend

Mr Grocutt

PUPIL SUCCESS

A massive well done to Will in Year 8, who has been selected for the England U Indoor Cricket squad. This is a superb achievement by Will, and we as a school are so proud and will be supporting him along his journey. Modest as ever, Will said he was really happy with the news and was looking forward to it.

Evie in Year 8 has made a great impact in the culinary world, making her way through to the next round of the Rotary Club's Young Chef competition. Her effort this week saw her make the dishes in the picture, with the judges blown away by what she had created. Great work, Evie.

#SORTED

Please can I make you aware of the new #Sorted email address for all those who use the service. It will continue to run term time in both the mornings and afternoons so please get in touch if you wish for your child to attend.
